

WAR WITH GERMANY NOW ON!

President Wilson at 1:13 This Afternoon Affixed His Signature To The Formal Declaration of War Movements of Army and Navy Are Censored

Miss Rankin, Lady Member Of House, voted Against War.—Desired To Do Duty But Sentiment Ruled

NINETY-ONE GERMAN SHIPS ARE SEIZED

Washington—Bulletin—The senate adjourned at 2:15 until noon Monday.

Washington, April 6.—Seizure of interned German liners was the first step taken by the federal government today following passage of the war resolution by congress.

Ninety-one ships were taken; among them some of the finest German merchant marines. Ships were seized in the ports of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, New Orleans and other ports. At Hoboken the huge Vaterland was taken.

The American war resolution passed through its final stages this afternoon. Vice President Marshall signed the bill at noon in the Senate chamber. Then it was taken to the White House where President Wilson signed it this afternoon.

America is at war and under censor heavy moves have been taken against the enemy. America has in Brazil a new ally to fight Germany. Dispatches from South America declares that that country is free by the submarine of the Brazilian vessel Parana with loss of three lives. "The situation is most grave," Brazilian Foreign Minister Muller declared today "and a declaration of war against Germany may be necessary." If Brazil goes on record as against Germany Bolivia will follow.

England is endeavoring to force Argentina to lift its embargo on wheat. Charles P. Stewart United Press staff correspondent at Buenos Ayres advised today. He declared that Great Britain has threatened to declare an embargo on coal if Argentina failed to comply with its request. With the supply of coal from England cut off it would make the Argentine situation desperate. Her industries, railroads and commerce would be paralyzed.

For the first time in history a woman voted in congress and she voted "no." During the tense minutes when Miss Rankin's name was called she rose from her seat and went half way up the aisle. "I want to do my duty to my country," she said sobbing, "but I cannot vote for war." Thunderous applause came from all sides of the house at her admission. But "The Lady from Montana" did not hear the ovation. She returned quickly picked up her note book, and went out a side door grief stricken.

In the senate there were evidences of nervousness in the chamber and the galleries. When House Clerk Seth Trimble entered the chamber all eyes were on the clerk of the senate. For two long minutes the clerk viewed the message and its attachments and then handed it to the Vice President. He took a new stub pen, dipped it in the ink well, and signed "Thos. R. Marshall." When it was over an audible sigh of relief went up. A messenger was rushed over to the White House with it. When it arrived the President was out walking with Mrs. Wilson and returned shortly after.

As the President affixed his signature to the document Lieutenant Commander Byrd McFadden advised the navy department that the war was on and the order was flashed by the government wireless to the ships at sea at all corners of the world. Simultaneously every steam whistle in Washington and on the Potomac river shrieked out the summons.

The State Department advised the Swiss minister here representing the German government in the United States of this country's action. The message will be formally sent to Bern and from there to Berlin. United States representatives in every foreign and American consulate shall have received the word in 24 hours.

President Wilson signed the war resolution alone in the library of the White House at 1:13 P. M. This was considered in official circles as a good omen—thirteen is considered among even the most hardened of the President's advisors as the President's lucky number.

Seizure of German ships and internment of their crews does not come under the Prussian treaty between the United States and Germany the state department held today. On the contrary the government view is that, in the crews, the United States is interning men in German government service—not German merchantmen such as the treaty held should be exempt. As for the ships themselves as German government property they come under the treaty the department held. After the war is over it is likely this government will pay for them. They will be confiscated or requisitioned for the period of the war and if the German government torpedoes any of them enroute in American service it is Germany's own look-out and there can be no claim for payment.

While the resolution was in the senate awaiting the signature of the Vice President it was noticed that LaFollette was busy fumbling with papers on his desk. He did not once raise his eyes. Stone stared glumly at the ceiling.

WITH THE LUTHERANS

Easter gives promise of a glad celebration at the Danish Lutheran church. The day will be observed with an early service at 10 o'clock in the morning. At this service will be introduced for the first time the choral estimates which have been purchased and received. The choir will consist of thirty four voices and the procession will begin promptly at six o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. C. R. Allen, on the subject "The Empty Tomb of Jesus." In the evening at half past seven the Sunday school will recite the cantata "The Garden Tomb" assisted by the vested choir. The public is cordially invited to all the services and especially to the early service in as much as there is no other service in town at that hour. It is suggested that those who intend to go, go early as last year the auditorium of the church was filled to capacity.

BIRTHS DOUBLED, DEATHS

According to the records in the office of Registrar of Vital Statistics, V. A. Hagerty, Esq., there were seventy deaths since Jan. 1st, in the district in which he has jurisdiction. The district is comprised of Clearfield borough, Lawrence township, Gard, Goshen, Bradford, Boggs and Wallacetown borough. The births during the same period more than doubled the number of deaths but on account of the nature of the doctors to report the births promptly exact figures are not available at this time.

The $50,000 Confederate monument erected on Shiloh battlefield by the Daughters of the Confederacy is to be unveiled next month.

Public Installation Of Officers Of I. O. O. F.

Clearfield Lodge No. 197 I. O. O. F. held a public installation of officers in their handsome lodge rooms last evening. About seventy five members and their friends were present to enjoy the ceremonies. The music was furnished by the West Side Sunday school orchestra of nine pieces and they made a very fine impression. Many remarks favorable to the music were heard on the street from those who listened to the music from the outside.

District Deputy J. E. Radebaugh of Osceola Mills, Pa., assisted by a staff selected from the local lodge, conducted the installation in a very able manner and in a way that brought commendation from those present.

The following officers were installed: John W. Barratt, Past Grand; W. E. Gilliland, Noble Grand; F. E. Weller, Vice Grand; F. E. Gilliland, Secretary (6 mo.); E. Clair Davis, Treasurer (6 mo.); J. W. Barratt, Trustee (18 mo.).

SAVES STATE PHONE USERS COOL MILLION BY ITS EDICT

Harrisburg, April 6.—The Public Service Commission has ordered the Bell telephone company of Pennsylvania and the Central District Telephone company to make a cut in rates to the extent of $1,000,000 a year, and it is said that this will accomplish a general reduction of long distance toll charges. It will also make large reductions in telephone rentals in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, where these rentals are highest. The estimate, as made by the Commission, is an annual reduction of $500,000 in Pittsburgh, $150,000 in Philadelphia and $250,000 in equalling toll rates in other parts of the state.

No specific date is set for the time on which the new rates shall go into effect, but it is said that these will be set when the rates are ready and the Commission has been notified.

HENCHBERGER—DERRICK

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian manse by Dr. Reeve, pastor of the Presbyterian church, when two of Clearfield's well known young people were made man and wife. Harry W. Henchberger of Paradise, and Miss Mattie N. Derrick of the West Side. They were attended by Mrs. Ruth Wilson, sister of the groom, and her husband. The bride was becomingly dressed in a gown of white net over pale blue silk. The happy couple will reside in the West Side. Mr. Henchberger is a trusted employee of the New York Central Railroad. Our warmest congratulations follow them.

DOTY—GLOWATER

On Good Friday morning at the Presbyterian manse, Mr. Alvy Doty and Miss Ruth Glowater, both of DuBois, Pa., were married by Dr. Reeve, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Our best wishes attend these young people through their married life.

NOTICE
A notice having been given for the Y. M. C. A. to notify Mrs. J. B. Irwin or Mr. W. E. Wallace.

A STATEMENT IN JUSTICE TO PROF. WEISGERBER

During the past several days queries from different parts of the county have come to the various newspaper offices and other business places of Clearfield asking particulars regarding the story in circulation to the effect that County Superintendent C. A. Weisgerber, had been taken into custody by the authorities on the charge of disloyalty; that he had been giving utterance to disloyal sentiments and espousing the cause of Germany as against the United States.

Were it not that these queries come from various parts of the County, the friends of Mr. Weisgerber would not dignify them by denial. But the nature of the queries and the maliciousness with which the alleged utterances are embellished, make it imperative that a denial be made and the same given as wide circulation as possible.

County Superintendent Weisgerber is a native of Clearfield County and his Americanism is above suspicion. At no time has he ever uttered or even entertained sentiments other than absolutely American regarding the position of our country in its controversy with Germany. His friends are at all times ready to vouch for his citizenship, which is second to none in the county or elsewhere. He is a true blue American and has never by precept or example given the slightest reason for any sane man to question his Americanism.

For days and days the Old Glory has been floating to the breeze from his residence in Clearfield. In all his work as County Superintendent he has proven his citizenship and only those who do not know him would credit him as being anything other than a true American.

The rum is so industriously circulated that it has no legitimate basis. It is probable they owe their origin to the many malicious stories in circulation a couple of weeks ago regarding a former school superintendent of Lawrenceville schools, and later, the superintendent of the Curwenaw school, and later, the superintendent of the West Side Clearfield schools. Both these gentlemen suffered much notoriety from false rumors before they were able to place themselves right with the public.

JUDGE OF CENTER COUNTY ISSUES SOME RULES

All Licenses Are To Return Liquor To The Residents Of County Who Are Listed

TWO COURTS WORK TOGETHER

Having disposed of all license applications, Judge Quigley at Bellefonte Monday issued a few rules to be followed, with the intimation that anyone who does not obey the letter as well as the spirit of the law will not be allowed to continue in business.

He then suggested that all bars and drinking places be closed at 10 p. m. daily, and entirely on Good Friday, Memorial Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.

He stated that the courts would make an honest effort to live in the habit of map of known intemperance habits getting liquor through a third party, and ordered licensees to refuse absolutely to sell to persons non-resident of Center County, where such sales may be forbidden by any District Attorney, Sheriff, Burgess, constable or police officer having jurisdiction over the district in which the person resides.

This latter rule was in keeping with the understanding between Judge Bell and Quigley relative to the keeping of liquor away from the public. Changes in both Clearfield and Centre counties. When the millinery recently arrived in Philipsburg and the campaign for a moral cleanup of that burg was undertaken, the first step was to shut the doors off on a whole lot of men who drank to excess and as a result these men went out to the different hotels on the Clearfield county border and proceeded to "blow up." At this time Judge Bell notified the license holders in the territory affected to get the prohibited list from Philipsburg and put an embargo on them, which has since been effective.

Judge Quigley's ruling was made for the purpose of heading off the local "bottle brigade" the members of which have been getting their supplies in wholesale quantities at Philipsburg. The Philipsburg license holders will be supplied with an official list of these dysnomies in an effort to save them from themselves, and the night trains on the Pennsy will not be nearly so popular as they have been.

Louis Musmgug, aged about 34 years and unmarried, was found lying dead on the floor of his living quarters in the village of Windberne this morning. Musmgug was a blacksmith and lived in a room in the rear of his blacksmith shop.

It is said that a crowd of young men held a celebration there last night at which more or less disturbances were committed. When the crowd left Musmgug was sitting in a chair. This morning when some persons visited his quarters they found the man lying on the floor on his face stone dead.

He had been a sufferer from epilepsy and the physician who examined the body stated that death was no doubt due to epilepsy superinduced by over eating and drinking.

Safety First.—Surely no one living on the state highway would object to placing their R. R. FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 6, 1917.

hello! Yank!

Where is Johnny Reb?

Did you say you thought he was dead?

No. At 3 P. M. he went home and crawled in bed.

the best remedy for discontent is to try and estimate at what they are really worth.

nce we have actually entered the war we can expect estered with the fellow who says "I told you so."

idging from the recent personal encounters peace place in the hearts of local loyalists.

Such phrases as "if war is declared," "in case of hosties" and "in the event of war" have been swept into discard.

LEST WE FORGET

In these stirring times war is uppermost in the minds
the entire citizenry of the city. We think of it by day dream of it by night. Everything else is tabooed and big news of the day is all that we are interested in.
ere are many things right here at home that we must t overlook. How about our health situation? Our ough dumps still look us in the face and will play their t in bringing disease and death to our community as as war. We are certain to have another epidemic of antile paralysis this summer. Dr. Dixon, our State
ficer, has issued his warning. The cause of the malady
s not been found and the disease is bound to visit us ain. No cure is available and we should not forget to ke every means of prevention that is pointed out to us y the medical profession. The war we are in will require he conservation of life and health. Let us not forget hese things in this hour when the welfare of the nation
so much depends on the welfare of its citizens.

Girard, who writes for the Philadelphia Ledger, is a favorite writer with the readers of that estimable publica-
on. The following product of his pen is worth reading everybody as it brings out some facts in connection
th the newspaper business. The war has cost The Progss a neat sum of money already in extra news service labor. It will continue to be costly to us for we mean
p on the job with the very latest dope on war doings.

Senator Norris has it. I mean curious disease which makes him conspiracies.
wupapers, he declares, have en-
in a propaganda to manufacture ment for war. And yet when as espondent I used to see the Sen-in Washington—he was then a er of the House—he seemed ch a sane and wholesome fellow.
I repeat. This notion that papers want war so that they can at exciting news is a disease. As I accuse men of setting their
on ablaze in order to see the fire
idea work.

ere is the cold fact: War costs newspapers more in real cash than set any other important institu-

r news costs every live news-ar a great deal more money than can possibly get back from the sale
papers or in advertising.

A few years ago some valuable testimony on this very subject was brought out in connection with Joseph Pulitzer's estate.

It was shown that one of his newspapers had been earning a profit of about a million dollars a year before the Spanish war. So great were the expenses of that war that in 1898 the profits were actually reduced to zero.

You can judge from that how badly
Mr. Pulitzer wanted a war. And other papers suffered in like proportion.

The editor of the London Post told me his paper had twenty correspondents in the Boer war. Cable tolls at that time were $1.20 a word from Cape Town to London.

Perhaps Senator Norris also knows
of a man who deliberately had himself convicted of murder merely to attract a crowd to his own hanging.

Gather Wood.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

[Adapted from Hans Christian Andersen.]

JACK and Evelyn opened the door for daddy, and after supper he told them: "This is the last of the wind's story, my dears. So play your daddy is the wind saying now: 'When an old man who had tried to make gold to save his fortune dropped the glass holding it upon the floor I could not stay to watch his disappointment.'

"But later, when I came back, I found that he had swept up the precious bits off the floor and carried them away in his breast. I found him and his three daughters living in a shabby little house that hardly kept out wet.

"The only dry space under it was under a stork's nest. The mother stork was a good housekeeper, and the daddy stork was always bringing back sticks and straws in his bill to mend the roof nest with.

"This pleased me very much, for years ago I had once seen one of the daughters beg some woodchoppers to spare the tree that held a stork's nest. Her daddy then was trying to build a big ship to sell to the king. But nothing came of his plan. So now the storks did the only patching the cottage roof ever got, and the old man and his three daughters lived there.

"But what we all want to know is what fate fell to the three daughters? Anna Dorothea, the oldest, the one like a hyacinth when she was young, stayed in the cottage always and took care of her old father.

"The crows and magpies used to fly, screaming, over her whenever she went out to gather wood to keep her father warm. 'Caw! Caw!' they would scream at her, just as they used to scream over her father's oak forest when their nests were being chopped down to build a ship.

"Sister Ida, who was so like a rose once as a girl, married a peasant. She had once taken a fancy to the master builder of her father's ship. But in those days she felt too proud to marry a workman. But now she dug in the garden and drove cows, just like any peasant's wife.

"There was still a third, Johanna, who always reminded me of a lily, so proud and straight was she. She was a bold one. She had clothes made just like a boy's and took a place as lad with a skipper. A regular sailor was she! Her words were few and her looks stubborn, but she was willing to earn her living. With all her grit she always found it hard to climb a rigging. Sometimes as she struggled I felt like blowing her off into the soft billows so she might have a good long rest. But I always minded my business.

"So the storks kept a dry roof over Waldemar Dan and his daughters managed to get daily bread. But it was not a very handsome fate for proud folks. Whew! Whew! Fare away!"

RESOLUTIONS

The Ladies Adult Bible class of Mt. Zion church offer the following resolutions on the death of our sister, Mrs. Jennie Robbins. Another time death has entered our class and removed from our midst our beloved sister, Jennie Robbins.

We would pay this tribute of respect in loving remembrance of our sister, who, on March 4th, passed from earth, through the gates, into the City, not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens.

We feel that we have lost a faithful and loving worker, and we shall miss her presence and counsel, but what is our loss in her gain.

Resolved, that while we deeply feel our loss, we humbly bow to the will of God, being assured that he is too wise, to err and too good to be unkind, that whatsoever He doeth is for the best.

Resolved, that we deeply sympathize with her bereaved family and friends in this, their great affliction.

Resolved that our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days, and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and printed in Clearfield Republican, Public Spirit, and The Progress.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness
and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation; others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb blood caus-

"Why It Has Restored My Health So Perfectly That e Seems a Miracle."

"Yes sir, this Tanlac beats anything I have ever before used," declared F. P. Shively, a well-known salesman who lives at 1007 Third St., Juniata, Pa.

"I had no idea it was so good. Why, it has restored my health so perfectly that it seems more like a miracle than anything else.

"I had suffered from stomach trouble. My indigestion was all out of sorts. I couldn't eat. Whenever I did I would suffer from gas on my stomach and a sickening feeling that lasted for several hours afterward.

"My nerves were also out of gear, and I couldn't sleep sound and restful at night. I would wake up in the morning feeling heavy and languid, and I could scarcely muster up enough energy to get up and dress myself. I seldom ever could eat breakfast.

"After using two bottles of Tanlac my stomach seems in perfect shape, I can eat good and never sleep better in all my life. My weight has been increased three pounds by Tanlac. I simply can't get enough to eat now."

Tanlac is now sold here by Woodward & McPherson.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes
—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling all over your system, you are in need of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

TAKE SALTS FOR THE KIDNEYS IF YOUR BACK HURTS

We Should Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat, Says Noted Authority on Kidney Disorders

Recommends a Spoonful of Jad Salts In Glass of Water Before Breakfast to Stimulate Kidneys and Eliminate the Uric Acid

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then set fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

MAY ABANDON NEW REVENUES

War Crisis Upsets Movement For Funds.

MUST NOT BURDEN PEOPLE

New Revenue-Raising Measures Would Have Included Tax on Real Estate, Direct Inheritance, Oil and Natural Gas, Capital Stock of Manufacturing Concerns and Other Things.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 5.—Despite increased demands for more appropriations by state departments, state hospitals and semi-state institutions of all kinds, it is unlikely that the legislature will go very far in raising new revenues. The plan for additional funds, though at this writing it must be admitted that the program framed some time ago to raise many millions dollars annually is much nearer to abandonment than consummation.

Republican organization leaders say it is probable that the movement for largely increasing the state's income will be abandoned, and that additional taxes will not be imposed for peace time projects.

Organization leaders in the senate and house, while not yet certain of their ground, say it would not be wise to commit the state to larger outlays for projects that have for several years been regarded as urgent, but which might well wait if the legislature is to be confronted by the necessity of appropriating sums that may mount into the millions for war purposes, even though it is recognized it would be up to congress to authorize and finance the war program. The state could not wholly escape unusual and extraordinary outlays should war come.

It is probable, in the face of threatening conditions, that the drift will be toward paring state appropriations for educational, charitable and other institutions that make big demands upon the state treasury. The drift in the direction of more strict economy will also take in state departments.

What Might Have Been. New revenue raising measures, which have been under consideration, but most of which it is now said will likely be shelved, include the following: One mill tax on real estate, two per cent tax on direct inheritances, two per cent tax on oil and natural gas at the well, tax of one per cent on prepared coal and coke, tax of one per cent on capital stock of manufacturing concerns, a tax on all tickets sold by places of amusement.

Senator Sprull has introduced in the senate a concurrent resolution calling on the economy and efficiency commission to make an immediate report as to its findings in the matter of appropriations. The resolution passed. It is intended to hurry the commission in its work of informing the two branches of the assembly in the matter of appropriations. There has been talk that the report of the commission will contain recommendations cutting appropriations all over the state.

Municipal Court for Cities. A municipal court bill for cities of the third class is being fathered by Senator Mason, of Erie. There is to be one judge learned in the law, who is to be elected for four years at a salary of $3000 per year. There is to be a clerk at $1200 per year. The bill defines the duties of the court and sets forth matters that are to come before it. It would not decide title to property and would not have jurisdiction in highly important litigation. Senator Leiby, of Perry, introduced a bill providing that pending appeals in cases of appeal from summary conviction the fine imposed by magistrates, justices of the peace and aldermen need not be paid if a bond in double the amount of fine is filed until the appeal is determined.

For Third Class Cities. Following a hearing which was attended by representatives of Pennsylvania's League of Third Class Cities, the municipal corporations committee of the house of representatives has reported favorably upon the league's bill containing many amendments to the Clarke act regarding government of third class municipalities.

Attorney Gardner, of New Castle, explained certain amendments which iron out the initiative and referendum features of the Clarke act. With regard to the former, it is made very clear that all petitions to compel the council to pass an ordinance must be signed in the city clerk's office and in the presence of all officials.

Among other important amendments are those providing that the terms of the mayor and councilmen shall all be for four years. The term of the mayor is now four years, and those of the councilmen two years. The new act requires that at the first election following the expiration of the councilmen's present terms the two men receiving the highest number of votes shall be chosen for four years and the other two men for two years, but thereafter all will be elected for four years. Under this arrangement efficiency in the government will be maintained as there will always be at least two experienced councilmen in office, as only two men will be elected at any one time.

NINETY-ONE GERMAN SHIPS ARE SEIZED

Washington—Bulletin—The senate adjourned at 2:15 until noon Monday.

Washington, April 6.—Seizure of interned German liners was the first step taken by the federal government today following passage of the war resolution by congress.

Ninety-one ships were taken; among them some of the finest German merchant marines. Ships were seized in the ports of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, New Orleans and other ports. At Hoboken the huge Vaterland was taken.

The American war resolution passed through its final stages this afternoon. Vice President Marshall signed the bill at noon in the Senate chamber. Then it was taken to the White House where President Wilson signed it this afternoon.

America is at war and under censor heavy moves have been taken against the enemy. America has in Brazil a new ally to fight Germany. Dispatches from South America declares that that country is free by the submarine of the Brazilian vessel Parana with loss of three lives. "The situation is most grave," Brazilian Foreign Minister Muller declared today "and a declaration of war against Germany may be necessary." If Brazil goes on record as against Germany Bolivia will follow.

England is endeavoring to force Argentina to lift its embargo on wheat. Charles P. Stewart United Press staff correspondent at Buenos Ayres advised today. He declared that Great Britain has threatened to declare an embargo on coal if Argentina failed to comply with its request. With the supply of coal from England cut off it would make the Argentine situation desperate. Her industries, railroads and commerce would be paralyzed.

For the first time in history a woman voted in congress and she voted "no." During the tense minutes when Miss Rankin's name was called she rose from her seat and went half way up the aisle. "I want to do my duty to my country," she said sobbing, "but I cannot vote for war." Thunderous applause came from all sides of the house at her admission. But "The Lady from Montana" did not hear the ovation. She returned quickly picked up her note book, and went out a side door grief stricken.

In the senate there were evidences of nervousness in the chamber and the galleries. When House Clerk Seth Trimble entered the chamber all eyes were on the clerk of the senate. For two long minutes the clerk viewed the message and its attachments and then handed it to the Vice President. He took a new stub pen, dipped it in the ink well, and signed "Thos. R. Marshall." When it was over an audible sigh of relief went up. A messenger was rushed over to the White House with it. When it arrived the President was out walking with Mrs. Wilson and returned shortly after.

As the President affixed his signature to the document Lieutenant Commander Byrd McFadden advised the navy department that the war was on and the order was flashed by the government wireless to the ships at sea at all corners of the world. Simultaneously every steam whistle in Washington and on the Potomac river shrieked out the summons.

The State Department advised the Swiss minister here representing the German government in the United States of this country's action. The message will be formally sent to Bern and from there to Berlin. United States representatives in every foreign and American consulate shall have received the word in 24 hours.

President Wilson signed the war resolution alone in the library of the White House at 1:13 P. M. This was considered in official circles as a good omen—thirteen is considered among even the most hardened of the President's advisors as the President's lucky number.

Seizure of German ships and internment of their crews does not come under the Prussian treaty between the United States and Germany the state department held today. On the contrary the government view is that, in the crews, the United States is interning men in German government service—not German merchantmen such as the treaty held should be exempt. As for the ships themselves as German government property they come under the treaty the department held. After the war is over it is likely this government will pay for them. They will be confiscated or requisitioned for the period of the war and if the German government torpedoes any of them enroute in American service it is Germany's own look-out and there can be no claim for payment.

While the resolution was in the senate awaiting the signature of the Vice President it was noticed that LaFollette was busy fumbling with papers on his desk. He did not once raise his eyes. Stone stared glumly at the ceiling.

WITH THE LUTHERANS

Easter gives promise of a glad celebration at the Danish Lutheran church. The day will be observed with an early service at 10 o'clock in the morning. At this service will be introduced for the first time the choral estimates which have been purchased and received. The choir will consist of thirty four voices and the procession will begin promptly at six o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. C. R. Allen, on the subject "The Empty Tomb of Jesus." In the evening at half past seven the Sunday school will render the cantata "The Garden Tomb," assisted by the vested choir. The public is cordially invited to all the services and especially to the early service in as much as there is no other service in town at that hour. It is suggested that those who intend to go, go early as last year the auditorium of the church was filled to capacity.

BIRTHS DOUBLED, DEATHS

According to the records in the office of Registrar of Vital Statistics, V. A. Hagerty, Esq., there were seventy deaths since Jan. 1st, in the district in which he has jurisdiction. The district is comprised of Clearfield borough, Lawrence township, Gard, Goshen, Bradford, Boggs and Wallacetown borough.

The births during the same period more than doubled the number of deaths but on account of the nature of the doctors to report the births promptly exact figures are not available at this time.

Public Installation Of Officers Of I. O. O. F.

Clearfield Lodge No. 197 I. O. O. F. held a public installation of officers in their handsome lodge rooms last evening. About seventy five members and their friends were present to enjoy the ceremonies. Many remarks favorable to the music were heard on the street from those who listened to the music from the outside.

District Deputy J. E. Radebaugh of Osceola Mills, Pa., assisted by a staff selected from the local lodge, conducted the installation in a very able manner and in a way that brought commendation from those present.

The following officers were installed: John W. Barratt, Past Grand; W. E. Gilliland, Noble Grand; F. E. Weller, Vice Grand; F. E. Gilliland, Secretary (6 mo); E. Clair Davis, Treasurer (6 mo); J. W. Barratt, Trustee (18 mo).

SAVES STATE PHONE USERS
COOL MILLION BY ITS EDICT

Harrisburg, April 6.—The Public Service Commission has ordered the Bell telephone company of Pennsylvania and the Central District Telephone company to make a cut in rates to the extent of $1,000,000 a year, and it is said that this will accomplish a general reduction of long distance toll charges. It will also make large reductions in telephone rentals in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, where these rentals are highest. The estimate, as made by the Commission, is an annual reduction of $500,000 in Pittsburgh, $150,000 in Philadelphia and $250,000 in equalling toll rates in other parts of the state.

No specific date is set for the time on which the new rates shall go into effect, but it is said that these will be set when the rates are ready and the Commission has been notified.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a gown of white net over pale blue silk. The happy couple will reside in the West Side. Mr. Henchberger is a trusted employee of the New York Central Railroad. Our warmest congratulations follow them.

NOTICE

A notice having been published for the Y. M. C. A. notify Mrs. I. B. Irwin or Mr. W. E. Wallace.

A STATEMENT IN JUSTICE TO PROF. WEISGERBER

During the past several days queries from different parts of the county have come to the various newspaper offices and other business places of Clearfield asking particulars regarding the story in circulation to the effect that County Superintendent C. A. Weisgerber, had been taken into custody by the authorities on the charge of disloyalty; that he had been giving utterance to disloyal sentiments and espousing the cause of Germany as against the United States.

Were it not that these queries come from various parts of the County, the friends of Mr. Weisgerber would not dignify them by denial. But the nature of the queries and the maliciousness with which the alleged utterances are embellished, make it imperative that a denial be made and the same given as wide circulation as possible.

County Superintendent Weisgerber is a native of Clearfield County and his Americanism is above suspicion. At no time has he ever uttered or even entertained sentiments other than absolutely American regarding the position of our country in its controversy with Germany. His friends are at all times ready to vouch for his citizenship, which is second to none in the county or elsewhere. He is a true blue American and has never by precept or example given the slightest reason for any sane man to question his Americanism.

For days and days the Old Glory has been floating to the breeze from his residence in Clearfield. In all his work as County Superintendent he has proven his citizenship and only those who do not know him would credit him as being anything other than a true American.

The rum is so industriously circulated that it has no legitimate basis. It is probable they owe their origin to the many malicious stories in circulation a couple of weeks ago regarding a former school superintendent of Lawrenceville schools, and later, the superintendent of the Curwenaw school, and later, the superintendent of the West Side Clearfield schools. Both these gentlemen suffered much notoriety from false rumors before they were able to place themselves right with the public.

JUDGE OF CENTER
COUNTY ISSUES
SOME RULES

All Licenses Are To Return Liquor To The Residents Of County Who Are Listed

TWO COURTS WORK TOGETHER

Having disposed of all license applications, Judge Quigley at Bellefonte Monday issued a few rules to be followed, with the intimation that anyone who does not obey the letter as well as the spirit of the law will not be permitted to continue in business.

He then suggested that all bars and drinking places be closed at 10 p. m. daily, and entirely on Good Friday, Memorial Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.

He stated that the county would make an honest effort to cure the habit of map of known intemperate habits getting liquor through a third party, and ordered licensees to refuse absolutely sales to persons non-resident of Center County, where such sales may be forbidden by any District Attorney, Sheriff, Burgess, constable or police officer having jurisdiction over the district in which the person resides.

This latter rule was in keeping with the understanding between Judge Bell and Quigley relative to the keeping of liquor away from the public. Changes in both Clearfield and Centre counties. When the millmen recently arrived in Philipsburg and the campaign for a moral cleanup of that burg was undertaken, the first step was to shut the house off on a whole lot of men who drank to excess and as a result these men went out to the different hotels on the Clearfield county border and proceeded to "blow up." At this time Judge Bell notified the license holders in the territory affected to get the prohibited list from Philipsburg and put an embargo on them, which has since been effective.

Judge Quigley's ruling was made for the purpose of heading off the local "bottle brigade" the members of which have been getting their supplies in wholesale quantities at Philipsburg. The Philipsburg license holders will be supplied with an official list of these dysnomies in an effort to save them from themselves, and the night trains on the Pennsy will not be nearly so popular as they have been.

Louis Musengrug, aged about 34 years and unmarried, was found lying dead on the floor of his living quarters in the village of Windberne this morning. Musengrug was a blacksmith and lived in a room in the rear of his blacksmith shop.

It is said that a crowd of young men held a celebration there last night at which more or less disturbances were committed. When the crowd left Musengrug was sitting in a chair. This morning when some persons visited his quarters they found the man lying on the floor on his face stone dead.

He had been a sufferer from epilepsy and the physician who examined the body stated that death was no doubt due to epilepsy superinduced by over eating and drinking.

Such phrases as "if war is declared," "in case of hos-

LEST WE FORGET

In these stirring times war is uppermost in the minds
the entire citizenry of the city. We think of it by day and dream of it by night. Everything else is tabooed and big news of the day is all that we are interested in.
ere are many things right here at home that we must not overlook. How about our health situation? Our rough dumps still look us in the face and will play their t in bringing disease and death to our community as
as war. We are certain to have another epidemic of antile paralysis this summer. Dr. Dixon, our State
ficer, has issued his warning. The cause of the malady
s not been found and the disease is bound to visit us gain. No cure is available and we should not forget to ke every means of prevention that is pointed out to us
y the medical profession. The war we are in will require
he conservation of life and health. Let us not forget
hese things in this hour when the welfare of the nation
so much depends on the welfare of its citizens.

Girard, who writes for the Philadelphia Ledger, is a favorite writer with the readers of that estimable publica-
on. The following product of his pen is worth reading
everybody as it brings out some facts in connection
th the newspaper business. The war has cost The Prog-
ss a neat sum of money already in extra news service
labor. It will continue to be costly to us for we mean
p on the job with the very latest dope on war doings.

Senator Norris has it. I mean
curious disease which makes him

wupapers, he declares, have en-
in a propaganda to manufacture
ment for war. And yet when as
espondent I used to see the Sen-
in Washington—he was then a er of the House—he seemed
ch a sane and wholesome fellow.
I repeat. This notion that ebers want war so that they can at exciting news is a disease. As I accuse men of setting their
on ablaze in order to see the fire
idea work.
ere is the cold fact: War costs
newspapers more in real cash than
set any other important institu-e news costs every live news-ar a great deal more money than
can possibly get back from the sale
papers or in advertising.

A few years ago some valuable
testimony on this very subject was brought out in connection with Joseph
Pulitzer's estate.
It was shown that one of his newspapers had been earning a profit of about a million dollars a year before the Spanish war. So great were the expenses of that war that in 1898 the
profits were actually reduced to zero.
You can judge from that how badly
Mr. Pulitzer wanted a war. And other papers suffered in like proportion.
The editor of the London Post told
me his paper had twenty correspondents in the Boer war. Cable tolls at that time were $1.20 a word from Cape Town to London.
Perhaps Senator Norris also knows
of a man who deliberately had himself convicted of murder merely to attract a crowd to his own hanging.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

WHAT THE

[Adapted from Hans Christian Andersen.]

JACK and Evelyn opened the door for daddy, and after supper he told them: "This is the last of the wind's story, my dears. So play your daddy is the wind saying now: 'When an old man who had tried to make gold to save his fortune dropped the glass holding it upon the floor I could not stay to watch his disappointment.'

"But later, when I came back, I found that he had swept up the precious bits off the floor and carried them away in his breast. I found him and his three daughters living in a shabby little house that hardly kept out wet.

"The only dry space under it was under a stork's nest. The mother stork was a good housekeeper, and the daddy stork was always bringing back sticks and straws in his bill to mend the roof nest with.

"This pleased me very much, for years ago I had once seen one of the daughters beg some woodchoppers to spare the tree that held a stork's nest. Her daddy then was trying to build a big ship to sell to the king. But nothing came of his plan. So now the storks did the only patching the cottage roof ever got, and the old man and his three daughters lived there.

"But what we all want to know is what fate fell to the three daughters? Anna Dorothea, the oldest, the one like a hyacinth when she was young, stayed in the cottage always and took care of her old father.

"The crows and magpies used to fly, screaming, over her whenever she went out to gather wood to keep her father warm. 'Caw! Caw!' they would scream at her, just as they used to scream over her father's oak forest when their nests were being chopped down to build a ship.

"Sister Ida, who was so like a rose once as a girl, married a peasant. She had once taken a fancy to the master builder of her father's ship. But in those days she felt too proud to marry a workman. But now she dug in the garden and drove cows, just like any peasant's wife.

"There was still a third, Johanna, who always reminded me of a lily, so proud and straight was she. She was a bold one. She had clothes made just like a boy's and took a place as lad with a skipper. A regular sailor was she! Her words were few and her looks stubborn, but she was willing to earn her living. With all her grit she always found it hard to climb a rigging. Sometimes as she struggled I felt like blowing her off into the soft billows so she might have a good long rest. But I always minded my business.

"So the storks kept a dry roof over Waldemar Dan and his daughters managed to get daily bread. But it was not a very handsome fate for proud folks. Whew! Whew! Fare away!"

RESOLUTIONS

The Ladies Adult Bible class of Mt. Zion church offer the following resolutions on the death of our sister, Mrs. Jennie Robbins. Another time death has entered our class and removed from our midst our beloved sister, Jennie Robbins.

We would pay this tribute of respect in loving remembrance of our sister, who, on March 4th, passed from earth, through the gates, into the City, not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens.

We feel that we have lost a faithful and loving worker, and we shall miss her presence and counsel, but what is our loss in her gain.

Resolved, that while we deeply feel our loss, we humbly bow to the will of God, being assured that he is too wise, to err and too good to be unkind, that whatsoever He doeth is for the best.

Resolved, that we deeply sympathize with her bereaved family and friends in this, their great affliction.

Resolved that our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days, and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and printed in Clearfield Republican, Public Spirit, and The Progress.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and
phosphate prevents illness
and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation; others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb blood caus-

"Why It Has Restored My Health So Perfectly That e Seems a Miracle."

"Yes sir, this Tanlac beats anything I have ever before used," declared F. P. Shively, a well-known salesman who lives at 1007 Third St., Juniata, Pa.

"I had no idea it was so good. Why, it has restored my health so perfectly that it seems more like a miracle than anything else.

"I had suffered from stomach trouble. My indigestion was all out of sorts. I couldn't eat. Whenever I did I would suffer from gas on my stomach and a sickening feeling that lasted for several hours afterward.

"My nerves were also out of gear, and I couldn't sleep sound and restful at night. I would wake up in the morning feeling heavy and languid, and I could scarcely muster up enough energy to get up and dress myself. I seldom ever could eat breakfast.

"After using two bottles of Tanlac my stomach seems in perfect shape, I can eat good and never sleep better in all my life. My weight has been increased three pounds by Tanlac. I simply can't get enough to eat now."

Tanlac is now sold here by Woodward & McPherson.

TAKE SALTS FOR THE KIDNEYS IF YOUR BACK HURTS

We Should Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat, Says Noted Authority on Kidney Disorders

Recommends a Spoonful of Jad Salts In Glass of Water Before Breakfast to Stimulate Kidneys and Eliminate the Uric Acid

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then set fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

MAY ABANDON NEW REVENUES

War Crisis Upsets Movement For Funds.

MUST NOT BURDEN PEOPLE

New Revenue-Raising Measures Would Have Included Tax on Real Estate, Direct Inheritance, Oil and Natural Gas, Capital Stock of Manufacturing Concerns and Other Things.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 5.—Despite increased demands for more appropriations by state departments, state hospitals and semi-state institutions of all kinds, it is unlikely that the legislature will go very far in raising new revenues. The plan for additional funds, though at this writing it must be admitted that the program framed some time ago to raise many millions dollars annually is much nearer to abandonment than consummation.

Republican organization leaders say it is probable that the movement for largely increasing the state's income will be abandoned, and that additional taxes will not be imposed for peace time projects.

Organization leaders in the senate and house, while not yet certain of their ground, say it would not be wise to commit the state to larger outlays for projects that have for several years been regarded as urgent, but which might well wait if the legislature is to be confronted by the necessity of appropriating sums that may mount into the millions for war purposes, even though it is recognized it would be up to congress to authorize and finance the war program. The state could not wholly escape unusual and extraordinary outlays should war come.

It is probable, in the face of threatening conditions, that the drift will be toward paring state appropriations for educational, charitable and other institutions that make big demands upon the state treasury. The drift in the direction of more strict economy will also take in state departments.

What Might Have Been. New revenue raising measures, which have been under consideration, but most of which it is now said will likely be shelved, include the following: One mill tax on real estate, two per cent tax on direct inheritances, two per cent tax on oil and natural gas at the well, tax of one per cent on prepared coal and coke, tax of one per cent on capital stock of manufacturing concerns, a tax on all tickets sold by places of amusement.

Senator Sprull has introduced in the senate a concurrent resolution calling on the economy and efficiency commission to make an immediate report as to its findings in the matter of appropriations. The resolution passed. It is intended to hurry the commission in its work of informing the two branches of the assembly in the matter of appropriations. There has been talk that the report of the commission will contain recommendations cutting appropriations all over the state.

Municipal Court for Cities. A municipal court bill for cities of the third class is being fathered by Senator Mason, of Erie. There is to be one judge learned in the law, who is to be elected for four years at a salary of $3000 per year. There is to be a clerk at $1200 per year. The bill defines the duties of the court and sets forth matters that are to come before it. It would not decide title to property and would not have jurisdiction in highly important litigation. Senator Leiby, of Perry, introduced a bill providing that pending appeals in cases of appeal from summary conviction the fine imposed by magistrates, justices of the peace and aldermen need not be paid if a bond in double the amount of fine is filed until the appeal is determined.

For Third Class Cities. Following a hearing which was attended by representatives of Pennsylvania's League of Third Class Cities, the municipal corporations committee of the house of representatives has reported favorably upon the league's bill containing many amendments to the Clarke act regarding government of third class municipalities.

Attorney Gardner, of New Castle, explained certain amendments which iron out the initiative and referendum features of the Clarke act. With regard to the former, it is made very clear that all petitions to compel the council to pass an ordinance must be signed in the city clerk's office and in the presence of all officials.

Among other important amendments are those providing that the terms of the mayor and councilmen shall all be for four years. The term of the mayor is now four years, and those of the councilmen two years. The new act requires that at the first election following the expiration of the councilmen's present terms the two men receiving the highest number of votes shall be chosen for four years and the other two men for two years, but thereafter all will be elected for four years. Under this arrangement efficiency in the government will be maintained as there will always be at least two experienced councilmen in office, as only two men will be elected at any one time.
